(wife of Samuel Auldridge)

TILLISON and SUSANNAH BUZZARD AULDRIDGE

THE AULDRIDGE FAMILY

I, Lillie Auldrige Holliday, have for some years been interested in the genealogy of my parents, the Auldrige-Rodgers families, and have compiled what information I have been able to gather from relatives and Historical Sketches Pocahontas County West Virginia by William T. Price.

My great-great-great grandfather Auldrige was a native of England and died there. I do not know his given name but he and his wife Elizabeth had one son, William. After her husband's death, Elizabeth determined to bring her son, who was 10 or 12, to America where he could grow up in a free country. Not having money for ship passage, she came under the indentured servants statute and became a governess for John Johnson, whose wife had died previously, leaving a number of small children. John Johnson owned a plantation of 1500 acres on Jericho Road close Marlinton. He and Elizabeth Auldrige were later married. She died at the age of 114 years and lived to see two of her husband's grandsons become U. S. Senators--Senator Ewing of Ohio and Senator Farnsworth of W. Va. A Stevenson married into the Ewing family and in their line we had an Adlai Ewing Stevenson as Vice President of the United States.

William, my great-great grandfather, married Mary Cochran. Her mother was a Miss Mackenzie who married Thomas Cochran a native of Ireland. Mary had two brothers and two sisters. The Cochrans lived at Mill Point. William and Mary went to house-keeping at Bridger Notch where James and John Bridger were bushwhacked by the Indians in 1784. It was here my grandfather Tillison was born. They moved later to what is now the Beckley Pyles home place, sold and moved to Auldridge Mountain, close Buckeye. There were five children to this union: 'Tillison, Charles, Luther, Elizabeth and McKendry.

They were married at the "lower" Methodist Church at Buckeye by The Reverend George Echols. The little church is still in use. A cemetery is in the churchyard. They lived for a time at the Waugh place close Hillsboro. It was here their oldest child, Leonard Clifton was born. Oliver then purchased a tract of land close and built a home where the other 3 children were born.

Oliver and Eliza worked hard on their farm for a livelihood. They were not rich in material things but they left to their children a rich spiritual heritage that was worth much more. They were charter members of the Seebert Methodist Church. Before the church was built they met in a home for services. My father was church school superintendent for about forty years. Mother was always active in church and taught a Sunday School class. We lived about 2 miles away but regardless of weather they took their "brood" to church. This little church, that stands on a knoll surrounded by trees, looks down on the town of Seebert. It will always be very dear to me. Our daughter Jean has warm memories here, too, as she stayed with her grand-parents a lot during the summer months and attended church with them.

Eliza Auldridge passed away May 20, 1945 and is buried in the Marlinton Cemetery. After mother's death, my father lived in our home most of his remaining 23 years. He never lost interest in life or his church. He is buried beside mother and my brother Lake, in the Marlinton Cemetery.
